

COMPUTERWORLD HONORS PROGRAM NAMES AUTONOMY CEO TO CHAIRMEN'S COMMITTEE

Framingham, MA— Bob Carrigan, Chairman of the Computerworld Honors Program Chairmen's Committee and President of IDG Communications, has announced that Dr. Michael Lynch, OBE, Founder and Chief Executive Officer, Autonomy, has been appointed to its prestigious Chairmen's Committee. The Committee, which is comprised of an elite group of top IT executives, recognizes IT companies that have leveraged technology through the betterment of society.

“Through his work with Autonomy, Dr. Lynch has demonstrated a profound understanding of how technology can positively impact society,” said Carrigan. “By uniting Lynch with the Committee, which is comprised of other like-minded executives of his caliber, we hope to raise awareness of the importance of this program within the technology community and beyond.”

The Computerworld Honors Program unites Chairmen and CEOs of the world's foremost information technology companies to recognize the most outstanding user achievements in technology each year. The process culminates with an awards ceremony, which will take place on June 4, 2007 in Washington, D.C., with a guest list that represents a who's who in IT. The technology achievements honored by this program are preserved and protected in national archives, and in over 350 universities, museums and research institutions throughout the world.

As part of the Chairmen's Committee, Lynch will help to identify the organizations whose use of information technology has been especially noteworthy for the originality of its conception, the breadth of its vision and the significance of its benefit to society.
